‘Airline food sucks?’ NO MORE!

Hi, welcome on board. I’m Catherine, from Santan, and if there’s one thing my team and I are absolutely obsessed with, it’s food. We’ve made it our mission to change the way the world sees ‘airline food’—permanently.

Let’s face it: the phrase “airline food sucks” has been around for far too long and we have decided to rewrite the story. Gone are the days of bland, uninspiring meals.

Our menu is inspired by the vibrant culinary heritage of Asean and beyond, bringing hearty, home-cooked flavours to the skies. From timeless favourites like Pak Nasser’s Nasi Lemak to bold new creations like MALA Beef Soup Noodles, every bite celebrates culture, quality, and care.

We also believe great coffee belongs in the skies too. While many thought it was impossible, we proved them wrong. Now, you can sip on a café-grade latte at cruising altitude—because you deserve nothing less.

And here’s the cherry on top: our meals and drinks come at wallet-friendly prices—cheaper than a quick bite at the airport!

At Santan, we don’t just make food; we create joyful moments that make the journey as enjoyable as the destination. So, sit back, relax, and indulge—this is food in the skies, reimagined.

While we’ve got the F&B covered, we’re always striving to do more. That’s why we continually review every part of our business—not just for us, but for you and the planet too.

We’ve invested in technology to reduce waste and embrace sustainability. A key initiative is our eco-friendly, compostable packaging. Every cup, lid, straw and cutlery on this flight is made from Polylactic Acid (PLA), a material derived from renewable resources like corn and cassava. Unlike traditional plastics, PLA breaks down quickly in composting facilities and even at home.

This change helps cut over 500 tonnes of carbon emissions annually. It’s a small shift with a big impact, and we’re excited to have you on this journey. Together, we’re making a real difference!

Xoxo,

Cath.

DAVAO'S CULINARY ROOTS GET THE SPOTLIGHT IN FIRST HALAL CUP

Marilou W. Ampuan
President
Universal Islamic Center

“This rich culinary heritage symbolizes unity and diversity, making Davao a beacon of cultural harmony in Mindanao. It builds mutual respect and understanding between communities, inspiring inclusivity and curiosity about Mindanao's rich heritage.”

2024 AirAsia Halal Friendly Culinary Cup champion

Davao is home to 11 distinct tribes, including six Moro tribes (Tausug, Maguindanaon, Maranao, Sama, Iranun, and Kagan) and five Lumad tribes (Ata, Klata, Matigsalug, Ovu-Manuvu, and Tagabawa).

Each has its own culinary heritage rooted in native ingredients, Halal practices, age-old cooking methods, and nature connection—making the city's food scene a living symbol of Mindanao's cultural diversity and harmony.

In August 2024, AirAsia, Santan and the Universal Islamic Center (UIC) celebrated this legacy by hosting Davao's first-ever Halal-friendly Culinary Cup.

Among the standout dishes were Beef Rendang and Chicken Pastil, giving both locals and tourists an authentic taste of Filipino Muslim cuisine.

“Food is a universal language that transcends boundaries. Through the flavors of our 11 Tribes, we share not only our heritage but also a message of unity and inclusivity to the world.” said UIC President Malou Ampuan

Our collaboration with AirAsia represents a milestone in showcasing the beauty of Mindanao's culture and culinary traditions.”

This collaboration with UIC presents a unique opportunity to showcase a dish inspired by the rich traditions and flavors of Mindanao's 11 tribes, introducing our passengers and the world to the unique culinary offerings of our Mindanao region and sparking a new curiosity among travelers to explore its authentic flavors.

WORLD'S BEST LOW-COST AIRLINE FOR 15 YEARS RUNNING

A win for AirAsia, is a win for Asean.

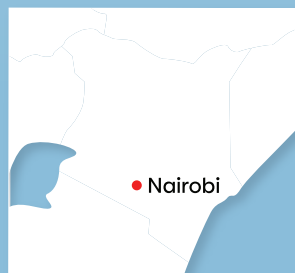

A group of AirAsia staff members, including pilots and cabin crew, are posing together on a tarmac. They are smiling and making a heart shape with their hands. In the background, an AirAsia plane is visible in the sky. The foreground features a large, stylized '15' graphic with 'CHAMPIONS' and 'YEARS RUNNING' text, and a circular award badge that reads 'WORLD AIRLINE WINNER SKYTRAX AWARDS 2024'. A red banner with the 'ALL DREAMS' logo is also visible.

This win is as much yours as it is ours. From our team of Allstars, to you, our guests, thank you for being part of our story.

Together, we dare to dream.
